

Interactive comment on “Tropical cyclone genesis across palaeoclimates” by J. H. Koh and C. M. Brierley

M. Huber

matthew.huber@unh.edu

Received and published: 8 March 2015

Hi, I was wondering whether the calculations (e.g. clipped vorticity) are performed in all cases on monthly mean fields, on higher (temporal resolution) fields, or using monthly mean averages of nonlinear quantities? It was hard to follow exactly how the calculations were done. Thanks. -mh

---

Interactive comment on Clim. Past Discuss., 11, 181, 2015.