

Interactive comment on “Pollen-based biome reconstructions for Latin America at 0, 6000 and 18 000 radiocarbon years” by R. Marchant et al.

R. Bonnefille (Editor)

bonnefille@cerege.fr

Received and published: 4 September 2009

The authors should be thanked for the careful revision that they have done following comments of three reviewers and taking into account the suggestions. The final version will constitute a state of art and comprehensive synthesis for the South American continent. It is now a good, accessible paper, that will be a reference. I personally thank the authors for their long, tedious and collaborative effort. This paper makes a valuable contribution to this special volume of Climate of the Past. Congratulations for the effort in making a very good contribution.

Prior to its final publication, a few precisions should be made on illustrations: such as fig 1 did not display the contours of the continent. Was it a result of transferring under different software ?? P79 was missing or blank. In the last table the difference between

Full Screen / Esc

Printer-friendly Version

Interactive Discussion

Discussion Paper

the two titles "present biome" and "modern" should be clarified in the caption.

---

Interactive comment on Clim. Past Discuss., 5, 369, 2009.

CPD

5, S322–S323, 2009

---

Interactive
Comment

Full Screen / Esc

Printer-friendly Version

Interactive Discussion

Discussion Paper

S323

