We thank to the referee for the constructive comments. We agree with all of them. As we respond to referee #1, we will include an appendix with information of the new sources.

About the “Methods”, we are restructuring this section of the paper taking into account your comment.

A paragraph will be included describing the synoptical situations that cause major droughts in Iberia.

We will explain in depth the Fig. 3 in the new version. Also, all the detailed minor remarks proposed will be considered in a new version of the manuscript.

Thanks for your help.
