Dear Authors,

three reviewer have published their comments on this CPD contributions, and you are now asked for detailed replies. All three reviewers for this paper find it interesting enough to be published in CP, but comment very critically on some methodological problems in this work. I think a revised manuscript it can be accepted after major revisions. In particular, reviewer #3, who is most critical, gives detailed suggestions on the required major revisions. I'm looking forward to the revised manuscript.

Regards, Volker Rath
