Dear authors,

We have now received the reviews of your manuscript from two referees.

Both reviews are very positive about your work, highlighting its value as ‘reference publication’ for the ice core and paleoclimate community, and recommend publication of your paper with very minor modifications. I thank the reviewers for their recommendations which I encourage you to take into account, in particular Todd Sowers’ detailed comments.

I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript.

Best wishes, Gisela Winckler
