Dear Dr Salvattecì

We have now received two reviews of your manuscript CP2103-147. They are both positive. They both stress the importance of your work, the quantity and the quality of the data you discuss. They raise however some criticisms and recommendations. One recommends minor revisions and the second major revisions. I advise you follow those recommendations closely when revising your manuscript. I would like also to insist on one comment of Rev. 2 who criticize the length of your manuscript. I agree with this comment and I recommend you produce a significantly more concise text.

Hoping you will find those comments useful and that they will help you for revising your manuscript.

Yours sincerely,

Luc Beaufort
