We are grateful to the reviewer for his insightful comments. We apologize about it but there has been some miscommunication between the editor, the reviewers and ourselves. Indeed, the submitted version of the paper to Climate of the Past was modified from the version the reviewer has previously reviewed, and most comments and suggestions were taken into account. In the attachment, we provide answers to the questions raised by the reviewer, i.e. we explained how and where these have been incorporated in the manuscript and clarified some points.
